

Homeless Services: Myths and Realities
Pretty Packaging, Empty Promises: the HLOSC & the

Disclaimer: These Criticisms of the focus on 180/180 and the

There's a reason we call it the HLOSC

Shelters 46 maybe 100

Testifies against homeless activists

Helps shield the homeless under the new law?
Still provides no documentation when asked

A shelter for the homeless?
No access during the day

Drug Den?

Responds to vital concerns with transparency
Neither Lane nor Martinez have openly responded

Helps disabled people
Has expelled disabled people and has no posted policy

Supports civil rights
Discourages homeless people from "loitering"

Opposes bad laws
Has been silent about the anti-homeless laws

Opposes homeless sweeps?
Has been silent as homeless campsites destroyed, property destroyed.